

Department of Commerce Office of Security Eastern Region

Initial Security Education
Briefing

Security Clearance

- A security clearance is a determination of trust, which makes you eligible for access to classified information.
- A security clearance is not permanent; it expires when you leave your position.

Requirements for holding a security clearance

- Attend a briefing designed to teach you proper procedures for handling and protecting classified information. Refresher briefing every year.
- Sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (SF-312).

SF-312 Non-Disclosure Agreement

- Legally binding agreement between US Government and you. It is a life long agreement.
- Understanding of damage which could occur from unauthorized disclosure.
- Agree to pre-publication review
- Classified information is US GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

SF-312 and Penalties

- Should you improperly disclose classified:
- Under E.O. 12958, Performance Plan:
 - Performance Appraisal/Awards
 - Reprimand/Suspension (Without Pay)
- Loss of monetary gains made from improper disclosure
- Loss of security clearance
- Termination of employment
- Criminal prosecution (prison/fines)

National Security Information

- Official information which relates to the national defense or foreign relations of the United States, which has been deemed requiring protection from unauthorized disclosure.

National Security Information

- There are levels of classification to describe national security information. Unauthorized disclosure of this information could cause damage to our nation's security.
- CONFIDENTIAL- Damage
- SECRET-Serious Damage
- TOP SECRET- Exceptionally Grave Damage

The Threat

- Why must we protect classified information?
- Economic espionage is on the rise
- Intelligence needs are economic as well as military
- Present/former adversaries and our allies are conducting intelligence activities against us.

“Countries don’t have friends,
they have interests”

deGaulle

The Threat cont...

- Don't forget the insider!
- Counterintelligence is your responsibility.
- Report suspicious activities to your Security Officer immediately.

Classification of Information

- How does information become classified?
- Original Classification: initial determination that information, in the interests of national security, needs protection.
- Derivative Classification: incorporating, paraphrasing, restating, or generating in new form, information that is already classified.

National Security Information

- Classified information must fall under one of the following categories:
- Military plans, weapons systems or operations
- Foreign government information
- Intelligence activities, sources or methods to include cryptology

National Security Information cont..

- Foreign relations or activities of the U.S.
- Scientific, technological, or economic matters relating to national security
- Programs for safeguarding nuclear materials or facilities
- Vulnerabilities or capabilities of systems, installations, projects, or plans

Reasons to NOT classify information

- To conceal violation of law, inefficiency, or administrative error
- To prevent embarrassment to a person, organization, or agency
- To restrain competition
- To prevent or delay the release of information that does not require protection in the interests of national security.

Declassification

- Documents are marked for automatic declassification within ten years unless:
- The document is exempt from automatic declassification at 10 years under E.O. 12958. Additional reviews at 10 and 5 year intervals.
- All classified documents are declassified at 25 years (with a few exceptions). No document series at Commerce are exempt.

Marking Documents

- Title and/or subject should be marked
- Paragraphs and sub-paragraph must be marked
- Illustrations and pictures also
- Overall classification is determined by the highest portion marking
- Mark classification on top/bottom of every page.

Marking cont...

- The bottom of the document should have the following:

Classified by: Jack Smith, Director, OSY

Reason for Classification: 1.5 (d) E.O.
12958

Declassify on: 1 June 2007 or x1-8 (exempt)

Derivative Classification

- When incorporating classified information, be sure to:
- Observe and respect original markings.
- Carry forward all classification markings.
- Carry forward declassification instructions (using the most stringent)
- List all sources

Derivative Marking

- If derivatively classifying a document, the bottom right corner of the should have:

Derived by: Joe Burns, DOC, OSY

Derived from: CIA Terrorism Report, 3/97

Declassify on: 3/1/07 (or x1-8)

Derivative Marking cont...

- When derivatively classifying a document using multiple sources, either list each source or list “multiple sources” and maintain a list of the sources on file copy.
- Always use the most stringent declassification date.
- If source is marked OADR, list “Source marked OADR” and list date of document.

Accountability of Classified

- Required for Secret and Top Secret
- CD481 (will be switched to a computer database)
- Identify who, what, when, where, how.
- Annual inventory is required!
- Use cover sheets and classified receipts!

Storage of Material

- Sensitive, FOUO, Privacy Act, proprietary information must be stored under one level of lock (desk, drawer, file cabinet).
- Classified information must be stored in a GSA approved security container (safe).
- Note that each safe should have a SF700, SF702 and open/closed sign.

Combinations

- Security container combinations are classified at the level of information in the safe.
- Should always be memorized; never write them down.
- Don't share with anyone who does not need to know it.

Combinations cont...

- Change your combination when:
- the security container is found open and unattended
- someone who has the combination leaves
- if you feel the combination has been compromised
- when the security container is taken out of service

Control and Access

- You are responsible for protecting and controlling classified information.
- You must limit access to authorized persons by verifying:
 - Identification
 - Clearance
 - Need to know

LEAKS

- Most leaks result from:
- Casual conversations
 - Don't discuss classified outside the office!
- Open Sources
 - Publication does not infer declassification!

Transmission: Telephone/Fax

- Always use a STU III phone or fax
- Standard and cell phones are not secure
- Is there a secure phone in your office? If not, where is the nearest one?

Transmission: Double Wrapping

- Must be done to prepare for hand carry, courier, or US Postal
- Affords 2 layers of protection
- Protects against damage.
- Use opaque envelopes
- Don't forget a receipt
- Inner wrapping: full address.
- Return address
- Classification markings top/bottom and front/back
- Information and receipt placed inside

Transmission cont...

- Outer Wrapping:
 - Full address of receiver
 - Full return address
 - NO CLASSIFICATION MARKINGS
 - Recommend that you put “If undeliverable, return to sender”

Transmission cont...

- To send Top Secret: call your security officer.
- Secret and Confidential
 - Hand-carry
 - Approved courier
 - US Postal Service
- Hand Carry: No overnight stay without proper storage
- No aircraft overseas
- Courier: check authorization
- US Postal:
 - Secret: Registered
 - Confidential: Certified, Express or First class

Computer Security

Do not process classified unless:

- You have contacted your information technology rep
- Your computer has a removable hard drive
- Is in a stand-alone configuration (no modem/network unless accredited)

Reproduction

- Various ways to reproduce classified information:
- Paper (photocopier)
- Electronically
- Other means (video and/or cassettes)
- Use approved equipment for that purpose
- Account for your copies!

Reproduction cont...

- Approved photocopiers:
 - Are in controlled environments
 - Do not have memories
 - Are sanitized after classified copies are made
 - Are serviced by cleared personnel or service personnel are monitored while repairs are made
- Contact your security officer if your copier jams while working with classified

DESTRUCTION

- Classified material destruction
 - Approved methods:
 - Burning (at an approved facility)
 - Shredding (using an approved cross cut shredder)
 - Use small classified waste “burn bags”
- Other types (FOUO, Privacy Act, SBU, etc.): SBU should be shredded using cross cut shredder. At a minimum tear up other types.

Overseas Travel

- Contact your security officer for a briefing before you go.
- Do not bring classified
- Limit sensitive information
- Notify U.S. Embassy of your visit

Reporting Requirements

- All employees must report contact with a foreign national who:
 - Requests classified information
 - Wants more information than they need to know
 - Acts suspiciously
 - Report incidents to your security officer immediately.

End of Day Security Checks

- All security containers windows/doors
desk tops for classified
- Complete the SF 701
“Activity Security
Checklist.” The office manager is responsible for the implementation of the SF 701

Your Security Officer

- Your security officer is there to help you!
- Report to your security officers:
 - Security violations
 - Loss or compromise of classified information
 - Security incidents or problems

When You Depart Commerce

- If you are leaving the Department you must:
 - Turn all classified material over to your classified control point
 - Contact your Security Officer for a debriefing
 - Turn in your ID, keys, and access cards

Finally....

- Who is responsible for security at the Department of Commerce?
- YOU ARE! Have a secure day!

DOC/OSY Eastern Regional Security Office Staff

- Carroll Ward, SA - Security Officer
(757) 441-3431
- Patricia Keith - Asst. Security Officer
(757) 441-3428
- Trish Neunz - Security Assistant
(757) 441-3620

Fax (757) 441-3422